

Days Go By

A black and white photograph showing a close-up, low-angle view of a sailboat's mast and rigging. The mast is a dark, vertical pole on the left side of the frame. Several ropes and lines are visible, running diagonally across the image. The background is a very bright, almost white sky, which creates a high-contrast scene. The overall composition is abstract due to the focus on the geometric lines of the boat's structure.

A message to the class of 2006...

We finally did it! Soon we will toss our red and white caps into the air, marking the end of an incredible beginning and the start of an unimaginable future.

While your lives will take you to different ends of the earth, always remember you began here. As you set out to find your destiny, carry this with you: never settle for less than your dreams and never be afraid to try. Though you may fail, there is no other way to succeed. Keep your feet grounded and never stop reaching for the stars.

Though the days go by quickly, the memories you've made and the laughs that you've shared are the essence of life. Before you set out to discover your new life, let us give you this gift of memories.

The 2006 Yearbook Staff

"Days Go By"

Lyrics by Keith Urban

We think about tomorrow then it slips away.

Oh, yes, it does.

We talk about forever but we've only got today...

And the days go by...

I can feel 'em flyin'

Like a hand out the window as the cars go by...

Yeah it's all we've been given,

So you better start livin',

You better start livin',

Better start livin' right now!

to any fellow creature,
let me do it now;
let me not defer or neglect it,
for I shall not pass this way again.*

Football

The 2005 Hingham High School Football was unforgettable for both the team and their many devoted fans. Coaches Killinger, Perkins, Langill, Kelliner, and Serrento led the team to five shutouts, and with an overall record of 9-2, the Harbormen marked the end of their season with a 19-0 victory over Scituate on Thanksgiving Day. Captains Mike Battaglia, Mike Perkins, and Charlie Hovsepian, along with their fellow players from the Class of '06 finish with an overall record of 31-5, but call this season "the highlight" of their four years on the team.

Football Cheerleading

This year's Hingham Cheerleaders were unparalleled in their devotion and skill. As one student put it, "I really dig the cheerleader's awe-inspiring performance at the pep rallies"- and no wonder. With their devoted coaches, Natalie Allen and Leah Dunay, they practiced after school for long hours in order to gain the confidence, the nerve, the sheer courage to stand up before the student body and shake their tail feathers. Go red. Go white. Yeah Hingham.

Dance Team

The Dance Team will never forget the good times that they had together. Dancing under the Friday Night Lights, their Chili's adventures and pasta parties. They loved getting "Dance Team" cheers from the crowd and will miss their 5:30 Get Down practices on Thursday nights which were always a good time. Under the guidance and mentorship of their coach Penn Feeney-Lynch they worked their moves and dazzled the crowds.

Hingham High School's boy's soccer team turned many heads in their 2005 season. Finishing as South Sectional Division Two Champions, captains Joe Albert, Nick Jones, and Jay Wilson led their team to a record breaking season with a final count of 17-0-1, the best season in Hingham High School history. Head coach Ken Carlin, later named "Coach of the Year" by Eastern Mass State Coaches Association, successfully taught the boys good sportsmanship after their gut-wrenching, season ending loss to Stoneham in double overtime.

The Hingham High Golf team put yet another great season under their belt this year. The team finished with a record of 14-3, which gave them the title of the 2005 Patriot League Champions. Captains Pat Cadigan and John Connelly led the team with heavy contribution from Justin Wulf, Scott Young, and Nick Caruso. The team worked extremely well together and found themselves competing once again at the Division II South Sectionals. Wulf was the medalist for the team shooting a 78, but the team was upset and fell one spot short of making it on to the state tournament. The harbormen are looking forward to another great year with a lot of returning golfers.

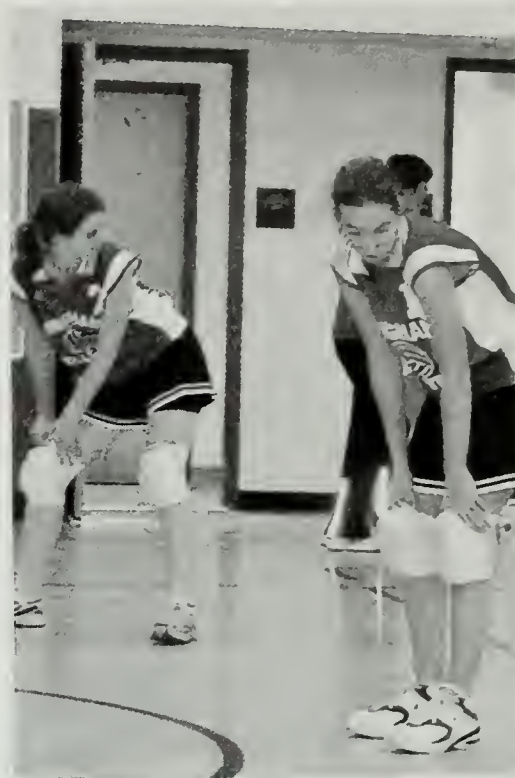

Scott Young

The volleyball team completed an enjoyable season under coach Meg O'Donnell this fall. The girls gained valuable experience in the game which will serve them well in future seasons. More importantly, the team, made up of students from all grade levels and diverse interest groups, really bonded and came together through their efforts to build spirit-- making t-shirts, tie dying socks, and riding together to games all over the state-- and create unlikely friendships. We wish this new team well in coming years as the program grows.

Gymnastics

The HHS gymnastics team had a great season led by their exceptional captains and coaches. Hope Rathnam and Kelly Ryan made a powerhouse leadership team for the second year in a row, whipping their gymnasts into shape with intense conditioning and running. Through the coaching of Jayne Schlieff and Mallory Brady (former team captain '03), the team increased their scores throughout the season, ending with a win against Randolph Milton. They will always remember the bus rides, braids, and after-meet cookies.

Boys Hockey

Hingham High Boys' Varsity hockey has continued their path of success for yet another year. With an astounding record of 14-2-1, the Harbormen are seeking their fifth consecutive Division 1A Tournament invitation. Led by senior co-captains Ty McDonald and Mike Perkins, the team prides itself on strong defense and excellent offense. Coaches Garrett Reagan, Tony Messina, Rick Schuhwerk and Andy Marhoffer have coached the team to some big wins over St. John's Prep, Weymouth and Duxbury (twice). Swimming

In their second year and first season as a solo team, Hingham swimmers proved themselves more than capable of succeeding on their own. Perhaps the most telling of the enthusiasm and growing support for the swim team were the numbers- a team of fifty. This year Hingham was a major presence in the league. The girls' team made an impressive showing with an overall record of 4-4. Sectional qualifiers included Alden Bush, Kelly Collins and Lindsay Ranahan., who, along with Sophie Lammers, boasted the number one ranked relay team in the league . The boys' team also had a great season with an overall record of 2-6. Much of the boys' enthusiasm was attributed to the strong group of freshmen who joined the seasoned senior swimmers. The team wishes best of luck to its graduating seniors, led by captains Ryan Kennedy, Maren Handorf, Jeff Meyer and Carolyn Trogele. Clubs and Activities

American Field Service

The AFS club sponsored many fun activities this year including BBQ's, a calendar sale, a dance-a-thon and most importantly a short term exchange with students from another part of the country. This year they traveled to Kansas, but in years past they have seen places like Chicago, Ohio and North Carolina.,meeting lifelong friends along the way. This year's club was overseen by Mrs. Gillard and officers Lauren Cardenaz, Drew Wojtasinski, Caitlin Corey, Mary Newman, Jenn Berger, Caroline Trogele, Jenny Kahane, and Blair Bailey.

Amnesty International

Hingham High's Amnesty International chapter has a lot to be proud of. This year, they led several successful campaigns including World Aids Day and No Blood for Diamonds. Advisor Ms. Roth and President Sasha Williams led the group in letter-writing campaigns, movie nights and field trips, including a regional conference in Boston and the annual Get On The Bus human rights rally in New York City.

Anti-Defamation League

The Anti-Defamation League, better known as ADL, strives to educate students at all grade levels in matters of diversity and tolerance of all races, gender, creeds, and personal preferences. Sponsors Fred Jewitt and Erin Krall, along with president Lisette Worster, train teams of junior and senior peer facilitators who work directly with sophomore and freshman classes. ADL also sponsors several school-wide programs each year promoting awareness and prevention of racism, abusive relationships and hazing, and by doing so, helps make HHS a safer happier place. Below: scenes from the spring leadership conference in Boston.

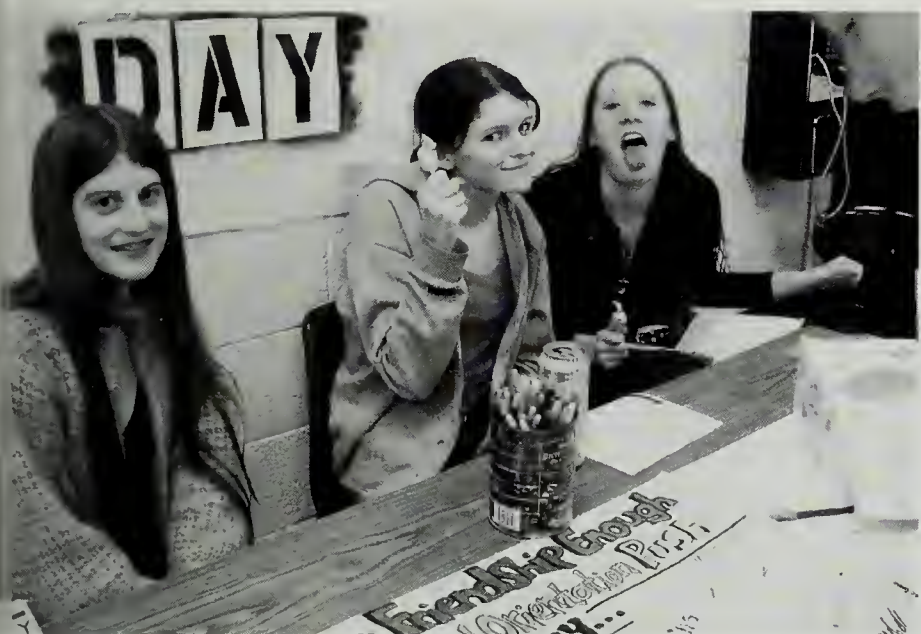

Gay-Straight Alliance

This year's GSA has achieved much in terms of work to promote understanding and tolerance. Discussion-based meetings, conducted by Mr. Lalli, took place on a weekly basis; movie nights were hosted on a monthly basis. The GSA also raised awareness of the problems gay teens face in coming out by celebrating National Coming Out Day in October. Members encouraged classmates to sign a pledge of unconditional love towards friends, regardless of sexual preferences, and it was a great success. Members also participated in the Boston Pride March, the BAGLY Prom, and a candlelight vigil held by South Shore Civil Marriage For All.

Band

The HHS Concert Band enjoyed an eventful year, performing their final season under the direction of Mr. Douglas Wauchope. After 12 years with the Hingham Public Schools, Mr. Wauchope moves into retirement, capping his career with the autumn performance of his own composition, Pictures at an Exhibition, inspired by the artwork of HHS. Other notable moments in the year included the student-selected performances of the themes from "Final Fantasy VII" and "Schindler's List" and a trip to Chicago.

BIOLOGY CLUB

This year has been one of the biology club's most successful. In cooperation with the oceanography club, the members went on an amazing trip to Costa Rica over April vacation, where they visited the Gandoca Manzanillo Wildlife Refuge, the Arenal Volcano, and the Tabacón Hot Springs. Led by biology teacher Mrs. Duffy, the club was urged to explore the wilderness around them. And back in Hingham, as always, students were encouraged to bring in any animal or plant that they found, any time of the year.

OCEANOGRAPHY CLUB

In addition to the Costa Rica trip, the oceanography club organized many other extracurricular activities. Under the supervision of Mr. Gauthier, kids dissected dogfish sharks after school. It was a messy job, but some were brave enough to handle it. Mr. Gauthier also took the club on whale watches in Boston Harbor.

Clubs&Activities

Under the leadership of President Sara Gassert, Vice President Chris Burke, treasurer Erica Lindberg, secretary Liz Szyman, producer Ashley Mirabassi, manager Paul Roell, librarian Alysia Campbell, and chorus rep. Michael O'Neill, the chorus has led yet another successful and productive year. As a highlight, the chorus took their annual trip in April, this year performing in Chicago. Under the management of newcomer Mr. Young, the group practiced and performed a wide variety of pieces. Among the smaller choral groups were the men's and women's choruses as well as a choral spectrum group.

DRAMA

The Drama Club is a unique organization in which everyone is welcome to participate. Led by Mr. Higgins the Drama Club reaches across both classes and after school activities. The club this year featured three plays; Guys and Dolls, Cut, and A Midsummer Night's Dream - not to mention the classroom and senior one-acts. The club also participates in an improv troop. Student leaders to the club include Liz Szyman and Joe Gianoni as co-presidents, Jacob Dankner, treasurer, and Dan Gifford, secretary with significant participation by Mike Campbell, Sara Gassert, Andy Ryan, Graeme Butler. Whether you are interested in being behind the scenes or on stage the Drama Club has a place for everyone.

Clubs and Activities

DEBATE TEAM

The HHS debate team, in only its second year, completely dominated the competition. With the guidance of Karen Shaw, seniors Alex Corey, Rob Lee, and Carrie Edmundson, and some delicious indian food, Hingham successfully argued this year's resolution that the United States' Federal Government should decrease its authority either to detain without charge of search without probable cause.. Varsity team of Sean, Carrie, Sam, and Max took 2nd overall while Alex, Rob, Adrian and Bush took 3rd. Hingham varsity was well represented in speaking points as well as taking 1st, 2nd and 4th overall. The novice teams did exceptionally well this year with four-person teams taking 1st, 2nd, 4th and 6th. Novice speakers took 9 of the top 20 places.

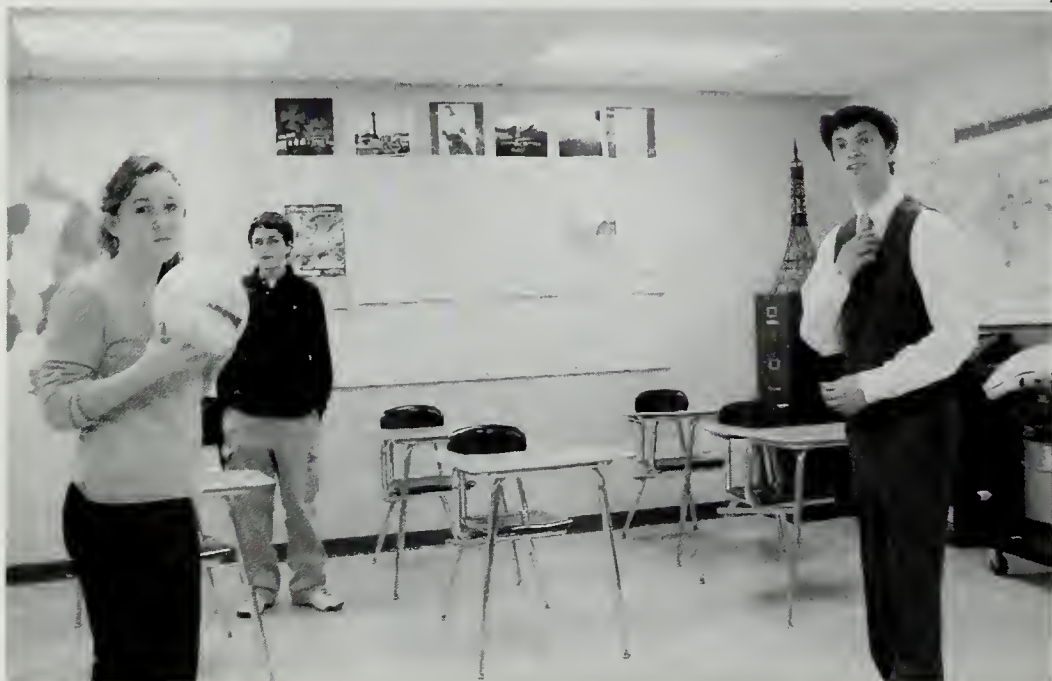

▲ I want YOU to join the debate team!

French Club

This year's French club has been très intéressant. Supervised by Madame Keyes, the club enjoyed not only fine cheeses (camembert, brie, gruyere, etc.) but also the magic of theater, attending a preformance of "Les Miserables" in Boston this spring. They are also putting together groundwork for an upcoming trip to Paris.

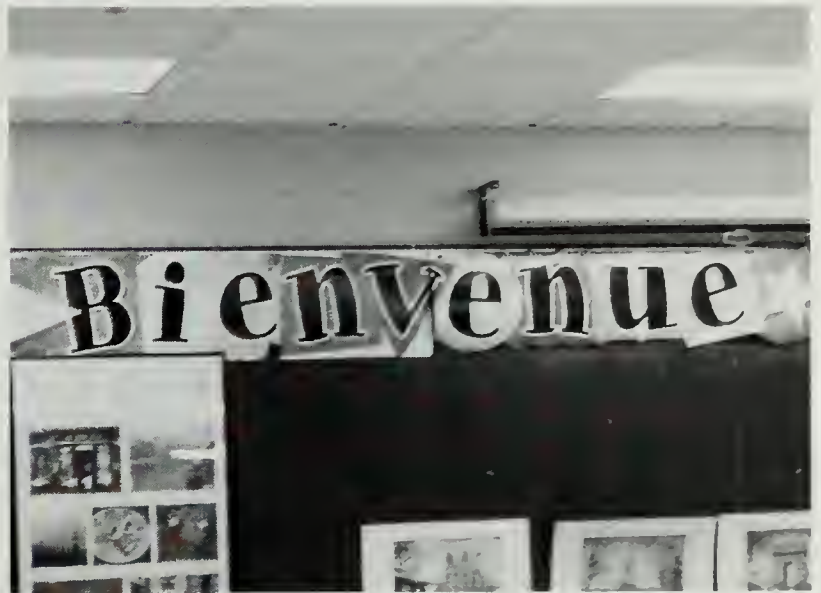

▲ Behold the power of fromage.

▲ Cheese...it's magically delicious.

▼ Qui n'aime pas le français? ► Another cheesy caption.

Harborlight

It has been quite a year for the motley crew of the Harborlight. Run by editors Hannah Lincoln, Maura McCormack and Chris Burke, the newspaper has undergone many changes from its previous look and reputation. Over the course of a few months, a small group of individuals researched major newspapers, sent out letters, and scoured the school for reporters. The result of their hard work and multiple stay-until-the-janitor-kicks-us-out nights is the newspaper that arrives bimonthly on every student's doorstep - the Hingham Harborlight.

Interact Club

Based on ideals of community service, Interact was established at HHS in the Spring of 2004. Advised by Susan Joyal, the students of interact participated in diverse service projects in their second year. They began the year by teaming up with Volunteer Club to initiate project backpack, benefitting victims of Katrina. At holiday time they took part in the Giving Tree, a project sponsored by the Wellspring Organization, buying and donating gifts for children based on their wishlists. In spring they took part in the Fairy Godmother Project, bringing prom supplies to those who have difficulty obtaining them.

Intergenerational Club

Intergenerational club is made up of high school students and senior citizens working together to help the community. President Erica Lindberg, vice president Cori MacDonald, and advisor Rebecca Milbury organize students to work primarily with the Hingham Senior Center. Highlights of this year included the Fall Coat Drive, during which students joined members of the senior center to pack coats for the needy and enjoyed dinner together. In the spring they sponsored a tea with the senior center.

▲Charlotte and Erica drive for coats.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club is active through most of the year with film parties, celebrations and chariot racing. Club sponsors Doug Ryan and Cathy Codyannis work with students to organize these activities. Latin film nights include such works as "Gladiator," "Spartacus," and "Jason and the Argonauts." During the holidays the club celebrates the traditional Roman festival of Saturnalia with a Yankee Swap, and in spring, club members build and race their own chariots. Everyone in Latin Club wants to win the laurel wreath crown.

Math Team

The Math Team at HHS consists of students from all four classes. This year they were led by senior captain Gillian Riggs along with faculty advisor Peter Healy. This diverse group came together through their love for math. The team competed in the topics of arithmetic, geometry, algebra I and II, trigonometry and advanced algebra topics. The competitions took place on the first Thursdays of November, December, January and February. The team members were always ready with their calculators to solve any problem. After all the work was done the team always celebrated with pizza! Way to go Math Team!

Model UN

The words "Decorum, delegates" will forever ring in participants' ears as the staple of Model UN Committee. With James Kirkcaldy as advisor, presidents Hillary Meahl, Erica Lindberg and Emily Grebenstein led a successful four day field trip to the 53rd session of Harvard Model UN. Delegates worked diligently on issues ranging from AIDS prevention to nuclear disarmament to honor killings all while battling the snowy weather of Boston. Thanks to everyone for a great trip!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

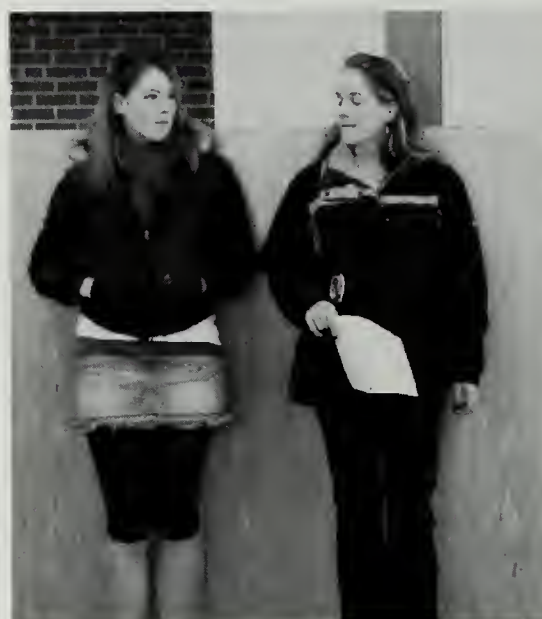

The Hingham High chapter of the National Honor Society, led by advisor Lisa Audet and officers Meaghan Jennings, Emily Johnston, Sean Fitzmaurice and Walt O'Donnell, worked hard this year to fundraise and give back to the community. Members of the club have to prove a high level of academic success and integrity as well as leadership skills and devotion to public service. This year, the club worked in settings ranging from soup kitchens, where they served food, to the public library, where they tutored other students in major subjects. The club also received recognition this year from the Hingham Education Foundation for their fundraising efforts, which allows the HEF to continue to fund projects within the schools. In this way, NHS helps ensure its own future and the future of all HHS students.

Gee, U Knit?

(Knitting Club)

The knitting club is new this year to HHS, but assembled a sizeable and enthusiastic following in only a few short weeks. Founders Jess Freyer (President) and Nicole Burbridge (Treasurer) began the group, advised by Kara Roth, to have a place to share their favorite hobby with others. However, the group quickly turned its efforts toward charitable endeavors, knitting and crocheting squares for Project Linus, an organization that assembles handmade blankets for needy children around the world.

Orchestra

This year's orchestra, led by President Carrie Edmundson, Vice President Jocie Edens, Treasurer Jess Mezz, Secretary Gillian Riggs, and the incomparable Ms. Sassano, serenaded HHS with pieces by Tchikowski, "Schubes," and Liszt. Peer Gynt and the sempiternal Jurassic Park were also favorites of many. With a trip to Chicago behind them, and eternal memories of concerts and indecently early morning Symphony rehearsals, the group now sets off to rule the world.

Outer Limits Literary Magazine

Each year, under the supervision of advisor Annemarie Fennelly, the Outer Limits gives HHS students an outlet for their creative work, from photography, poetry and short fiction writing to drawing and painting. This year was no exception, with the staff accepting submissions into the spring, with the magazine appearing to the public during the last week for seniors. The magazine features the most innovative contributions from the artistic side of HHS.

▲ April investigates back issues, mining for new ideas.

▲ Editors Gina and Adam work hard to select submissions for the 2006 edition.

SADD

This year Hingham High's SADD club was very productive. Expanding on last year's peer facilitation program, they worked with freshmen and sophomore gym classes and went to the middle school to facilitate health classes. The advisors this year were Ms. Campbell and Mrs. Marvel. The club's president, Meghan Carbone, and VP Erica Lindberg worked with the club to design and order lanyards to sell to high school students. After many fundraising events, enough money was made to purchase them. This has been one of the largest projects SADD has done over the years, and it was very successful. The club advisors were able to secure a grant to finance upcoming projects for SADD, including a parental awareness forum and facilitation through middle school health classes.

Senior Video

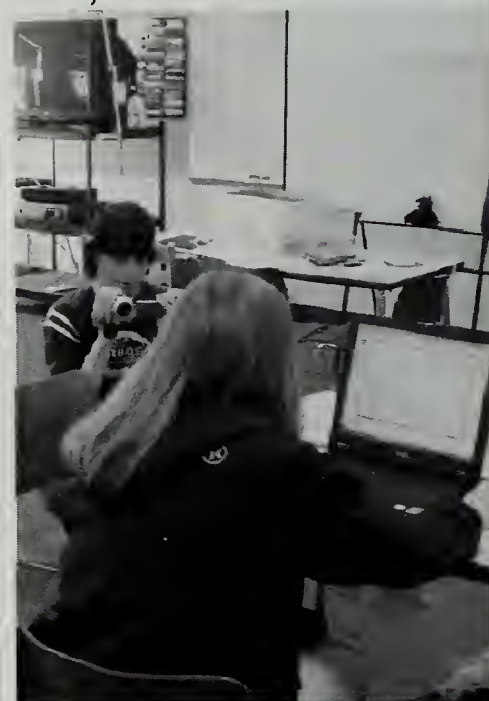

Senior Video is both a club and a class. Throughout the year, seniors collect video footage of major school events and sports team competitions and their early years at HHS. In January, these seniors begin the process of designing and editing a video that will highlight their four years at Hingham High School. The video also includes clips from their Senior Prom, Graduation, and Senior Night.

Spanish Club is made up of students from all grade levels who want to improve their Spanish speaking skills, learn more about Spanish-speaking cultures, and promote this awareness to others in the school and community. Sponsored by Senorita Emily Campbell, the club has grown in size, and taken excursions around the area and abroad to better experience Spanish culture.

Student Council

The 2005-2006 Student Council has had one of its best years yet. Under the leadership of President Liz Sanderson, Vice President Jill Guihan, Treasurer Meaghan Jennings, Historian Sam Lussier and of course advisor Ms. Moore, the "StuCo" underwent many positive changes. The council changed to an "open" council, allowing an unlimited number of members to join. This change made the Student Council the largest organization in the high school. Back in September, their first big project was hosting the Freshman Orientation. It was a huge success and a great way to start off the year. Their next success came when they sold out the Lip Sync contest and doubled their profits from all previous years. Although it was tough getting up early for their 7 o'clock meetings, the all you can eat pizza at Papa Gino's made it worthwhile.

▲ ► The most important decisions require pizza: StuCo representatives enjoy a little social time and relaxation before getting back to business.

The six different committees all worked very hard over the course of the year. The Spirit committee put on great pep rallies and one of the best Spirit weeks Hingham has ever seen. The Faculty Appreciation committee met early every Monday morning to congratulate the teacher of the week. The Fundraising committee planned and organized big fundraisers like the Lip Sync and Mr. Hingham High, as well as the sale and delivery of the candy canes and crush cans. The Community Service committee organized a number of community service projects, from adopting an African child named Geoffrey to the Student Council's large donation to Hurricane Katrina relief.

Over the course of the year, the Student Council attended many leadership conferences, the first being the SEMASC Fall Conference at Marshfield High School. The Executive Board attended Officershop at Holy Cross. Other StuCo members also attended a roundtable at Stoughton High School, a Lock-In at Middleboro, the SEMASC Spring conference at Plymouth North and the MASC state conference in Hyannis.

Traces

▲ Derek Englebrechtsen operates the jigsaw.

Traces allows students to develop technical skills and habits for the working world through hands-on practice and experience. Under the instruction of Mr. Pawlowski and Ms. Cooley students learn about wood and metal working, completing projects of their own choosing. Students such as this year's seniors John Corey, Ryan Leary, and Mike Riley take a bus to the workshop each day after lunch, where they hand craft and finish items such as bookshelves, desks, chairs and tables.

Volunteer Club

Volunteer Club has had a busy year, beginning with the tragedy of Hurrican Katrina in September. Advisor Kara Roth and President Ally DaSilva mustered the troops in the face of this disaster, spearheading Project Backpack, a drive to bring supplies to schoolchildren in the New Orleans area. They followed this sucess with a benefit concert, organized by Tucker Robinson and other members of the freshman class, with proceeds going to victims of Katrina. In addition to these endeavors, Volunteer Club continues to work locally through their longstanding partnerships, hosting the fall festival and proms for Cardinal Cushing School and taking part in the South Shore Relay for Life in May.

Yearbook

(Only the Strong Survive)

252 pages, all painstakingly crafted by hand, with love, dedication, thai food, and action figures. From the 05 to the 06, RockStar/ Pirate in Chief Breda Smith, Minister of Funk Katie McGrath, and Hardest-Core Niffler Abi Andrus were there, photographing, documenting, tracking down those hard to reach photos, and bearing the One Ring toward the apex of Mount Doom. Young Democrats Club

Since its inception in the spring of 2005, the Young Democrats have worked to raise political activism and awareness in the student body. This year they expanded their numbers, hosted movie nights and fundraisers, and built an ongoing relationship with the town Democratic party. The highlight of their year was hosting State Representative Garrett Bradley for a question and answer session and reception. They then turned their attention to helping kick off Sam Kelley's campaign for Lieutenant Governor.

WHHS-TV

It all happens on Friday at 8:52 AM- "Welcome to the Friday Show"- ten minutes of entertaining videos that feature the talented students and teachers of HHS. Students put together videos that highlight their sports teams' success, and videos that promote the upcoming play or Mr. HHS contest. In addition, the Friday show tackles local and national issues. Every week, students get together to plan out the next show. Next they go out to conduct interviews and film. Finally, they edit everything together into a 3 minute video. Some students get involved just in being a weekly announcer for the show. But by Friday AM, it's always time to turn on your TV to watch "The Friday Show."

Prospects

We have set out from here for the sublime
Pastures of summer shade and mountain stream;
I have no doubt we shall arrive on time.

Is all the green of that enameled prime
A snapshot recollection or a dream?
We have set out from here for the sublime

Without provisions, without one thin dime,
And yet, for all our clumsiness, I deem
It certain that we shall arrive on time.

No guidebook tells you if you'll have to climb
Or swim. However foolish we may seem,
We have set out from here for the sublime

And must get past the scene of an old crime
Before we falter and run out of steam,
Riddled by doubt that we'll arrive on time.

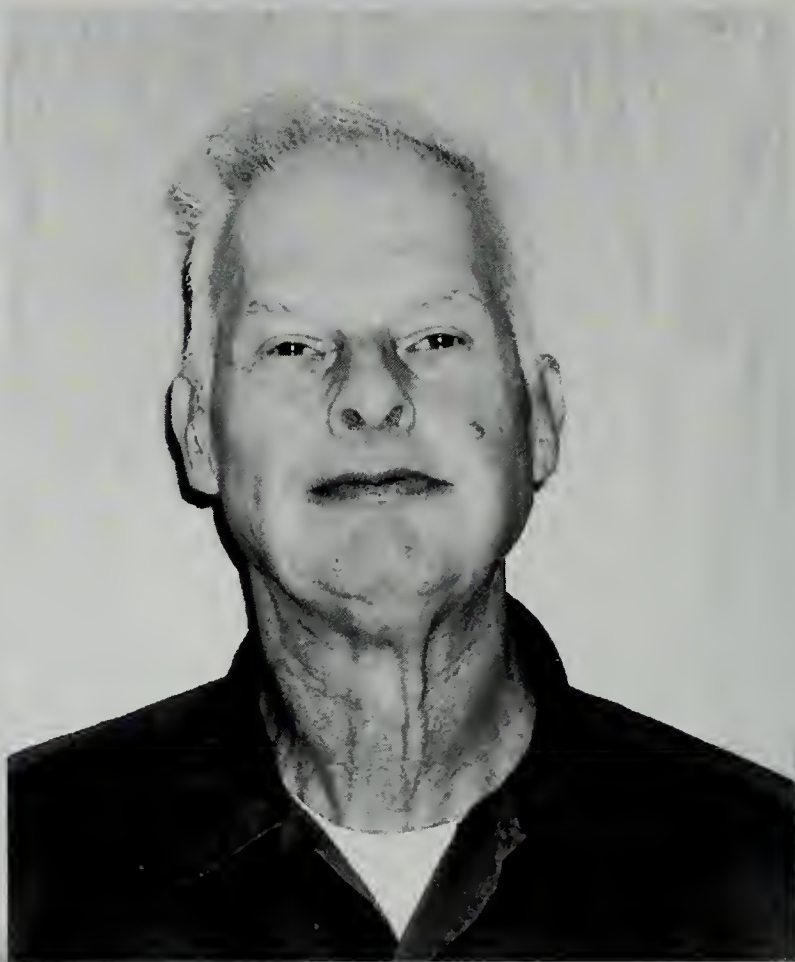

Yet even in winter a pale paradigm
Of birdsong utters its obsessive theme.
We have set out from here for the sublime;
I have no doubt we shall arrive on time.

Halloween

Lip Synch

▼ Boys pretending to be a boy band pretending to be a girl band-- a lip sync tradition!

▼ Every thug needs a lady.

▼ Caitlyn rocks the mic as Ashlee Simpson.

► Cue the dramatic lighting...

▲ Danny's just like a virgin.

▲ Boys pretending to be a boy band that knows math... beginning a new tradition.

▼ Mike feels the love tonight.

◀ Fitzy meets the shiny demon.

▲ Happy Anniversary dear!

Guys and Dolls

▲ Who knew action like this would take place in a room with wallpaper like that?

▲ These guys and dolls sure know how to sing!

▲ Andy, Sarah, Max and Meghan have a publicity shot taken.

▲ Don't be a sinner! Follow the fold!

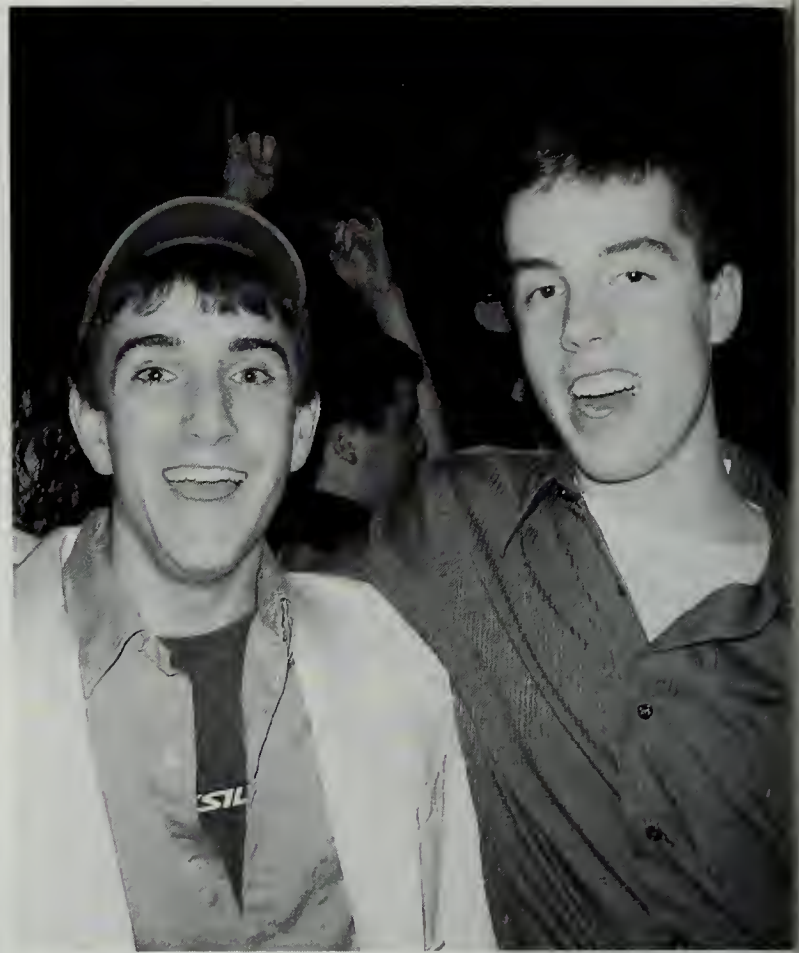

▲ Eric, Matt and Ben think they are about to win some money.

Many thanks to the awesome crew! ►

Gotta Dance!

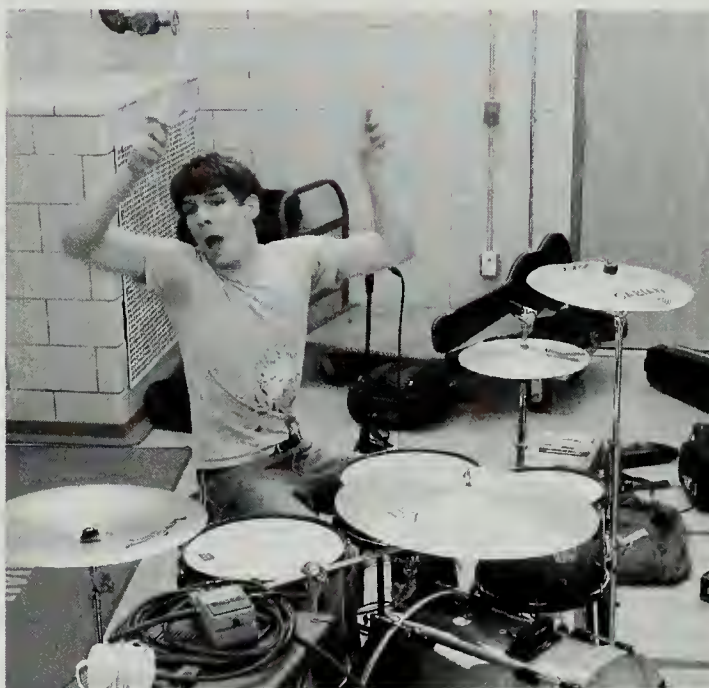

ARE YOU READY TO ROCK?

05-06 saw an explosion on the Hingham High School music scene. Early in the year Call it Fall released their first CD and played at the legendary Paradise Rock Club in Boston. Later, the underclassmen produced Permafrost, Big Shambles, Light Shade and Hat Trick. These bands organized a benefit for Katrina's victims and reassured the students of HHS that great live music is never far away.
